Dear Linda:

It was good to get your letter of March 17 and I am glad to know that you are planning to attend the joint Southeastern-Southwestern meeting in New Orleans. This will be very beneficial because you will be able to make a lot of good contacts there and contribute to the meetings.

I checked with Professor Leah Chanin, Chairman of the Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee. She tells me that the committee regrets it but they will not be able to complete their selections prior to the New Orleans meeting and she has suggested that for future years that they set their deadlines a little earlier. I would suggest that you drive to cut down your expenses and maybe get someone to share the trip with you and let the library pay your hotel and registration fees. Many people at these meetings will be paying their own way and it is worth it to advance your own professional skills. I make a good many trips for which I do not charge expenses because our expense money is short. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
